He is described as about 5 feet, 5 inches tall, swarthy and smooth shaven. The police say this descrip-tion fits the burglar who shot and killed Moses Gootman on East One Hundred and Twelfth street. This as sumption has only increased the slarm of residents in the zone the enterprising young man is operating in.

Wednesday night the burglar made several visits, via the fire-escape, to flats in No. 70 and in No. 86 East Nine ty-sixth street. In the apartment of Dr. Israel Cohen at No. 70 he managed to get hold of the trousers of Louis A. Brown, the doctor's brother-in-law. He Brown, the doctor's brother-in-law. He took the trousers down the fire-ascape and emptied them of $35, but he dropped the vest, containing a gold watch and chain, in the hallway.

Thursday night he evidently came back for the watch and chain, but Mr. Brown saw him through the kitchen window and he vanished.

Imitated Girl's Voice. Shortly after his entry into Dr. Johen's flat Wednesday night the bur-Cohen's flat Wednesday night the bur-giar broke into the apartment of Aaron Cantor at No. 68. Cantor heard him moving about in his daughter's bed-room and thought it was the girl. He called out, "Is that you, Fannie?" and the burgiar repiled in a soprano falsetto that for the time deceived the parent. Later it was discovered that he had taken Miss Cantor's purse containing $25, as well as several small pieces of jewelry.

Thursday night the burglar broke into Thursday night the burgiar broke into the apartment of Mrs. Francis Lowenson at No. 62, but Mrs. Lowenson's sister, Miss Jennie Daniels, saw him and screamed. He fied, but came back the very next night and was seen on the fire-escape. Now Mrs. Lowenson has a main relative sleaning in the Michael male relative sleeping in the kitchen with a gun in each hand.

Three other tenants in No. 62 reported visits from the burglar, but he was seen before he got an opportunity to obtain any plunder. In one case he had cut the pane out of a kitchen window and was just slipping in when a woman saw him and screamed.
